Extracts from Washington's Diary

EXTRACTS FROM WASHINGTON'S DIARY

EXTRACTS FROM WASHINGTON'S DIARY, KEPT
WHILE ATTENDING THE CONSTITUTIONAL CON-VENTION OF 1787.

[The Philadelphia Times of July 31 last, published the following excerpts from the MS. Diary of Washington preserved in the Library of Congress, probably the rough notes from which the diary in the State Department was written. Extracts from the latter have been published by Sparks in his "Life and Times of Washington." It is a small volume about the size and appearance of a pocket memorandum book, containing seventy-eight pages, of which thirty-four cover his sojourn in Philadelphia. A few corrections of proper names have been made, and the annotations appended by the ED. PA. MAG.]

1787. Friday, 11 [May].—Set out before breakfast and rid 12 miles to Skirrets' Tavern when we baited and proceeded to the Ferry at Havredegrass to dinner. The wind being high and the weather squally I did not cross the river—frequent showers thro' the day with mists and sunshine alternating.

Saturday, 12.—Crossed the river early in the morning and breakfasted at the ferry house at the east side—Dined at the head of Elk and lodged at Wilmington—at the head of Elk Mr. [Francis] Corbin joined me and took a seat in my carriage to Wilmington.

Sunday, 13.—About nine o'clock Mr. Corbin and I set out dined at Chester where I was met by Gen'l's Mifflin, Knox and Varnum, Cols. Humphreys and Mentges and Majors Jackson and Nicholas—After dinner we proceeded for the city—at the Ferry (Gray's) was met by the Troop of City Light Horse by whom and a large concourse I was escorted to Mr. Houses.¹—After passing the artillery officers (who saluted) at the entrance of the city. On my arrival a peal
